ABOUT OUR PRESENTER

Shyla Lafaele is a HUD Certified counselor with Hawaiian Community Assets. Before Shyla Lafaele devoted her work fulltime to Hawaiian Community Assets, Shyla was overcoming a domestic violence relationship. In 2015, Shyla and her son Solomon experienced homelessness. She became a client of HCA and enrolled in YWCA's Dress for Success Program, which provided support to her while she looked for employment.

With the help of Dress for Success and HCA, Shyla was able to obtain permanent housing for her family. Now as an empowered DV survivor, she is committed to helping other women learn about finances and housing rights.
